ORDER

Whereas, it has come to the notice of the District Administration, Golaghat, that various events and programmes, religious programmes, trade fairs, cultural programmes and other similar activities, are being organised at various places of the district, without obtaining the requisite permission from the District Administration;

And whereas, during such programmes, large numbers of people gather, resulting in traffic problems and inconvenience to the general public, and in some cases roads are closed or blocked for organising such programmes, thereby affecting the normal movement of vehicles and greater public safety ;

And whereas, it is necessary to ensure that such public gatherings, functions, celebrations and other events are organised in a regulated manner after obtaining the requisite permission from the competent authority and following the prescribed procedure;

And whereas, at the village/local level, the concerned Village Heads-cum-Gaon Pradhans have an important role in bringing public activities, gatherings and celebrations within their respective jurisdictions to the notice of the concerned authorities, specifically to the Rev Circle Officers and Local Police Stations;

And whereas, in the municipal/town areas, the concerned Executive Officer of the Municipal Board is responsible for matters relating to activities and functions taking place within the municipal area and is required to bring any unauthorised activity to the notice of the concerned authorities;

Now, therefore, after careful consideration of the matter, and in the interest of greater public safety in the district, the following directions are hereby issued for strict compliance:

- I. All public gatherings, celebrations, religious programmes, trade fairs, cultural programmes and other similar events shall be organised only after obtaining the requisite permission from the District Administration/competent departments reports and following the prescribed procedure.
- II. The organisers shall ensure to inform in advance, to the local Police Station about such organisation/ celebrations resulting in public gatherings
- III. No road or public place shall be closed, blocked or obstructed for organising any programme or event without obtaining prior permission from the competent authority.
- IV. In the village areas, the concerned Gaon Pradhans shall remain vigilant regarding such public activities, gatherings, celebrations and other programmes taking place within their respective jurisdictions. Information regarding any such large public gathering or celebration shall be brought to the notice of the concerned Executive Magistrate-cum-Circle Officer of the respective Revenue Circle and the local Police Station henceforth.
- V. In the municipal/town areas, the concerned Executive Officer of the Municipal Board shall remain vigilant regarding any such public activities, celebrations and other programmes taking place within the municipal area.

- VI. The concerned Executive Magistrates-cum-Circle Officers of the respective Revenue Circles shall remain vigilant within their respective jurisdictions and, upon receipt of information regarding any unauthorised public gathering, functions etc, shall take necessary action in coordination with the Police authorities and report the matter to the competent authority, wherever required.
- VII. Any organiser found conducting a public gathering, function, celebration or other programme without obtaining the requisite permission, or in violation of the conditions imposed by the competent authority, shall be liable to be proceeded against as per law.
- VIII. All concerned Executive Magistrates-cum-Circle Officers, Village Heads-cum-Gaon Pradhans and Executive Officers of the concerned Municipal Boards are hereby directed to ensure strict compliance with the above directions and to maintain proper public safety.

This order shall come into force with immediate effect.
